INSTITUTE FOR CIVIC LEADERSHIP

A candidate training forum

Become a better candidate & improve your chances for winning

June 15 and July 13 • Orlando

The Florida League of Cities Institute for Civic Leadership is for local government officials who want to better prepare themselves to run an effective campaign and be the best candidate for the job. Whether you are considering a run for a state office or seeking re-election locally, the Institute will provide you with key political and campaign strategies.

A minimal attendance fee is required. Registration coming soon.
