

FLC University: 2017 Offerings for April, May and June

ACTIVE SHOOTER WORKSHOPS* – part of “Safe Cities, Safe Florida” Initiative

Returning by popular demand! We have partnered with the FBI to bring two more classes, which are ideal for your police, fire and EMS command personnel, as well as managers, public information officers and elected officials.

Friday, April 7

Boca Raton Police and Fire Training Auditorium

Friday, May 19

Gainesville GRU Administration Building

INSTITUTE FOR ELECTED MUNICIPAL OFFICIALS

April – Advanced IEMO – sold out. Mark your calendar for April 2018.

June – IEMO – sold out. Registration for October now open.

CUSTOMIZED TRAINING

Contact Scott Paine and Lynn Tipton to discuss how the FLC University can help you with professional development and leadership classes for your city, or jointly with several cities in your area. Call (407) 367-4024 or email university@flcities.com.

ONLINE LEARNING*

April 13 – Ethics and Social Media Use

April 27 – ZIKA: Live with Dr. Roxanne Connelly, professor of Medical Entomology at the University of Florida

May 11 – Leadership: Opportunities and Challenges

May 18 – Post-Legislative Session Update

May 25 – Preparing Budget Requests: Innovative Ideas that Work

June 8 – Public Opinion: What Are Our Citizens Thinking?

June 22 – The Arts, Cultural Tourism & Economic Development

All sessions are recorded and placed in our on-demand learning library. Visit our website to view these sessions and more. Subscribe to our Events and Training e-Newsletter, as additional online learning opportunities become available throughout the year.

ETHICS TRAINING

The FLC University is pleased to assist all elected municipal officers in meeting the annual four-hour requirement. Each four-hour class features the specified content required in Chapter 112, Florida Statutes. For training dates:

- » Check your regional league for dates near you
- » Attend it at the FLC Annual Conference on August 17 in Orlando
- » Attend it at the FLC Legislative Conference on December 8 in Lake Buena Vista

GENERAL INFORMATION

*There is no charge for these workshops and webinars.

There is a charge for the IEMO classes.

If the ethics training is held as a stand-alone workshop, there is no charge. For training held during a conference, attendees must be registered for the conference to participate in the ethics training.

To register, visit the League’s training calendar at floridaleagueofcities.com. For more information, visit the training calendar or contact Shwanda Barnette at sbarnette@flcities.com.

Exclusive Training for Florida League of Cities Members – Elected Officials and Staff

FLC UNIVERSITY MAKES BUILDING YOUR KNOWLEDGE EASY, WITH FEATURES INCLUDING:

- » Hot-topic courses. Training on issues of importance to Florida's elected city officials and staff.
- » Convenience. Courses are held on-demand at your location, regionally or online, and the learning library on our website is available 24/7.
- » Cost-effective training. Most courses are free to League members.
- » Training specifically for elected officials. New to office? The IEMO is for you as you learn the requirements of your new role. Two advanced courses for elected officials address more complex leadership and policy issues.
- » Training in ethics. Held several times a year, the League's four-hour class meets the state's requirements for annual ethics training.

To learn more about FLC University, visit flcuniversity.com or email sbarnette@flcities.com.

First Class
U.S. Postage

PAID

Tallahassee, FL
PERMIT NO. 342